About Professor Lap-Chee Tsui:

Professor Tsui was born in Shanghai and awarded his bachelor and master degrees from the Chinese University of Hong Kong, PhD degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

He received international acclaim in 1989 when he identified the defective gene (viz. Cystic Fibrosis Transmembrane Regulator (CFTR)) that causes cystic fibrosis, which is a major breakthrough in human genetics. Professor Tsui has received numerous international awards and honours over the years.

Professor Tsui was Geneticist-in-Chief and Head of Genetics and Genomic Biology Program of the Research Institute, The Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto, and H.E. Sellers Chair in Cystic Fibrosis and University Professor at the University of Toronto. He is also the Immediate Past President of HUGO, the international organisation of scientists involved in the Human Genome Project.

He was the Chairman of the Biology and Medicine Panel of the Research Grants Council of the University Grants Committee of Hong Kong during 1994-2001. He is the Consultant to the setting up of the Genome Centre of HKU, and the Chairman of the Steering Committee on that Centre.

“Like you, I am a freshman too, and we are all on a steep learning curve together”

Professor Lap-Chee Tsui, the 14th Vice-Chancellor of the University arrived on September 1, 2002 and made his first public speech at the Inauguration Ceremony for New Students on September 4 in Loke Yew Hall.

“This is my first public function as Vice-Chancellor of this University. So, like you, I am a freshman too, and we are all on a steep learning curve together. But I have done my homework and I am sure that we have all made the right decision in choosing HKU.

This University is committed to whole-person education. By that, I mean we strive to mould you into fully-rounded individuals capable of thinking for yourselves, expressing compassion for others and showing a commitment to serving society.”

Guest of honour

The Hon Audrey Eu (LLB 1975), reflected on the “911”: “A hero is someone with clear vision of danger and nevertheless go forward to it... It does not need extraordinary people. It takes ordinary people. The symbol of basic goodness is in people and it is important to believe in this if good is to triumph over evil.”

HKU Gets the Top Students in SAR and the Mainland

Like in the past years, HKU gets the most HKALE Grade-A1 students (in 2 AL subjects and 1 AS subject in Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination). The number of these Grade-A1 students admitted to HKU is more than the total sum of those admitted by all other local institutions.

Furthermore, the University has admitted 60 "Fee-paying" Mainland students. A total of 1,006 applications were received from Shanghai, Beijing, Guangdong, Fujian, Jiangsu and Zhejiang. The University originally intended to admit about 30 students. But in view of the very high quality of the applicants, it finally decided to expand the number to 60.

Like those Mainland students admitted under previous Jockey Club Scholarship scheme (now Government Scholarship scheme), these 60 students will spend their first year in one of the following institutions: Peking University, Fudan University, Nanjing University, Tsinghua University, Sun Yat Sen University, or Xiamen University before they start their studies in HKU in the year 2003-2004.

Thank you, Professor Ian Davies!

After more than 22 years of service at the University of Hong Kong, Professor Ian Davies retired and becomes the Advisor to the Vice-Chancellor's Office now till early next year.

Members of Convocation bid a farewell to him on August 21 at the China Tee Club.

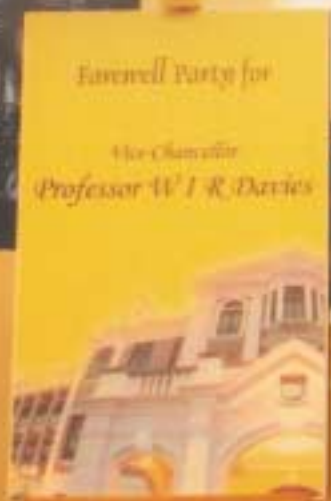

Close to a hundred alumni attended the party. On behalf of Convocation, Chairman Ms Wendy Gan expressed her gratitude to Professor Davies who has "established the corner-stone to bring HKU to next century of sunshine".

"I cannot thank members of Convocation enough for the way they have enhanced and sustained the reputation of the University of Hong Kong. We must always remember that you are a core part of the University, your contribution and the reputation that you have all established in your profession is what HKU is all about. I can assure you that a part of my heart will always be at HKU."

~ Professor Ian Davies

The Davies Cufflinks: A pair of HKU cufflinks, engraved with "Davies" and "HKU", was presented to Professor Ian Davies as a token of appreciation from Convocation.
