What was it like being a Eurasian in colonial Hong Kong? How is the notion of Eurasianness remembered in some Hong Kong memoirs? Being Eurasian is a description and analysis of the lives of three famous Hong Kong Eurasian memoirists, Joyce Symons, Irene

Cheng and Jean Gittins, and explores their very different ways of constructing and looking at their own ethnic identity.

Emergency medicine is a new and rapidly developing specialty. The fast patient flow, the large patient load, and the diversified clinical presentation make the emergency department a challenging place to work in. The 72 case histories included in this book cover a wide range of subjects and are real-life problems that may be encountered in emergency departments.
