The Jockey Club Student Village 賽馬會舍堂村 was opened by patrons including Dr Edmund Tse of The Starr Foundation, Mr Hamilton Ho, on behalf of his father Dr Ho Tim, Mr Paul Cheng of the Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust and representatives of the Hotung family, Sir Joseph Hotung, Mr Eric Hotung and Mr Robert Ho.

The Jockey Club Student Village located on 91 Pokfulam Road comprises three new halls:

Lady Ho Tung Hall (何東夫人紀念堂) replaces the original hall of the same name built in 1951. It now houses 400 students and retains its uniqueness as the only all-female hall at the University. The Starr Hall (施德堂) within the AIG Building, the newest and largest at 24-storeys, provides 500 co-educational places of which 30% are for international students. The Ho Tim Hall (何添堂) is a multi-purpose building which serves as a canteen and recreational facility shared by student communities.

Seed Grants Projects Continue to Flourish

Over the years, the Foundation has supported many programmes through the annual Seed Grants allocation exercise. For the year 2001-2002, over 60 applications were received from faculties and departments of which 20 projects were supported with allocation of HK$45 million including restricted donations. These projects are at the forefront of their respective fields and disciplines and will ultimately benefit the global community.

Highlights of Seed Grants Projects:

- The Human Genome Research Centre
- The Hong Kong WTO and Asian Business Law Project
- Hong Kong-Pearl River Delta Development
- Joint HKU-Harvard School of Public Health Executive Programme
- HKU-Tsinghua Collaboration in Medical Education
- Vaccines for Avian Influenza Viruses
- International Journal Exchanges and Fellowship Programmes
- Fellowship Programme for Chinese Diplomats
- Beijing University-HKU: Beijing Historical Geography Database
- The Guangzhou, Hong Kong and UK Molecular Epidemiology Research Centre

The Wah Ching Centre of Research on Education in China 華正中國教育研究中心 is built upon many years of contacts, research and experience with a multitude of educational institutions all across China. The Centre's team is composed of international specialists in education who are well-versed in Chinese culture, tradition and language. Dr Tam further established the Wah Ching Fund for promoting Chinese Culture.

Leaders are...

Ms Audrey Eu 余若薇 (LLB 1975): "You should not only aim high, but aim low...as you lead in every day life...even with one follower...little people can change destiny..."

Mr Lam Woon-kwong 林煥光 (BSocSc 1974): "Leaders must have dreams...Why do leaders think of themselves as perfect?...I love imperfection!...Leaders should be humble and open-minded..."

Mr John Chan Cho-chak 陳祖澤 (BA 1964): "Every young leader has his own visions and dreams...not only of his own, but for society, community and mankind."

The "Young Leaders of Tomorrow" Community Scholarship Scheme is turning a new page with the support of the Home Affairs Department and contributions from ninety local community leaders. A perpetual endowment fund of HK$9 million is established.

700 Students set off for global exchange
