CONVOCATION 香港大學畢業生議會

HK 2030 – Challenges and Opportunities for Hong Kong

A study on long-term development of Hong Kong was conducted in February 2004. A total of 220 responses were received through the web survey expressing views on various topics such as Hong Kong's successful elements and potential threats, positioning, population, social cohesion, urban planning, environmental sustainability and government policies.

Forum by HKU Convocation 香港大學畢業生議會
Economics
Geo-physical Planning
Population
Business Opportunities
Environmental Sustainability
Saturday . 21 February 2004

"Hong Kong must strive for Quality and Excellence."

Nearly a hundred were present at the forum on February 21 to discuss with panel speakers Mr Lee Jark Pui, Professor Patrick Lau, Professor Wong Siu-Lun, Professor Peter Hills, Mr Man Cheuk-Fai, and moderator Professor K W Chau. Content of the discussion is available at www.hku.hk/convocat/hk2030/index.html.

A position paper including views collected at the survey and the forum will be submitted to the government in late March.

An Evening with Jack So 蘇澤光

February 25, 2004
organised by HKU Convocation jointly with Hong Kong University Alumni Association, Hong Kong University Graduates Association and Careers Education and Placement Centre

"If you try your best and you leave your footprints in the sand, you have lived up to the expectations of being a HKU graduate."

Jack So (BA 1969), Deputy Chairman and Group Managing Director of PCCW, shared with over 250 students and graduates his personal stories as well as insights on how to be a valued employee in major corporations:

Have a dream, Work smart, Take risk, Build an image, Manage your relationships, (if you can't do any of those) Be philosophical and don't take life and yourself too seriously.

My Fair Lady is coming soon!

The Gala Premiere of the new print of "My Fair Lady", the classic musical starring Audrey Hepburn, will be held at Broadway Cinema of Cyberport. It will be a fundraising initiative of Convocation for HKU Foundation for Educational Development and Research.

Details will be announced by early April at Convocation web: www.hku.hk/convocat. Enquiries: 2859 2603.